

In the Clean and Workshop

LAST EDITION.

HEKLA NOT SIGHTED.

Friends of Nearly a Thousand Passengers Are Anxious.

Mystery Also About the Italian Steamer Siura.

Her Captain Would Not Pay the Price of Salvage.

Tossing about somewhere on the broad Atlantic are two great ocean steamships with enough human beings on board to populate a good-sized town.

These vessels have been out for weeks, and although many vessels have arrived at this and other ports in the mean time, only once has each been sighted and reported.

The greatest anxiety is now being expressed for the safety of the Hekla. It is now eleven days since the Danish ship was spoken by a tugboat, by the French liner La Normandie, with her machinery disabled, and her failure to reach this or some other port is causing people to speculate as to what has become of the ship.

Those having friends on board criticize the captain of the Hekla for not accepting assistance when it was within his reach.

The Hekla left Copenhagen on March 9. She also made stops at Christian and Christiansburg, departing from the latter port on March 13. On the evening of March 13, the Hekla was sighted by the tugboat, and the tugboat picked up the ship, and the ship was towed to the harbor of New York.

Nothing was heard of her, however, until March 21, when the Nordmanna reported that the Hekla was seen on March 27, in latitude 43-14 north and 48-14 west, changed to 43-14 north and 48-14 west, and the ship was seen by the tugboat, and the ship was towed to the harbor of New York.

At the office of Funch, Edye & Co. it is said that the only vessel that has been sighted is the Hekla. The ship was seen by the tugboat, and the ship was towed to the harbor of New York.

At the office of Funch, Edye & Co. it is said that the only vessel that has been sighted is the Hekla. The ship was seen by the tugboat, and the ship was towed to the harbor of New York.

At the office of Funch, Edye & Co. it is said that the only vessel that has been sighted is the Hekla. The ship was seen by the tugboat, and the ship was towed to the harbor of New York.

At the office of Funch, Edye & Co. it is said that the only vessel that has been sighted is the Hekla. The ship was seen by the tugboat, and the ship was towed to the harbor of New York.

At the office of Funch, Edye & Co. it is said that the only vessel that has been sighted is the Hekla. The ship was seen by the tugboat, and the ship was towed to the harbor of New York.

At the office of Funch, Edye & Co. it is said that the only vessel that has been sighted is the Hekla. The ship was seen by the tugboat, and the ship was towed to the harbor of New York.

At the office of Funch, Edye & Co. it is said that the only vessel that has been sighted is the Hekla. The ship was seen by the tugboat, and the ship was towed to the harbor of New York.

At the office of Funch, Edye & Co. it is said that the only vessel that has been sighted is the Hekla. The ship was seen by the tugboat, and the ship was towed to the harbor of New York.

At the office of Funch, Edye & Co. it is said that the only vessel that has been sighted is the Hekla. The ship was seen by the tugboat, and the ship was towed to the harbor of New York.

At the office of Funch, Edye & Co. it is said that the only vessel that has been sighted is the Hekla. The ship was seen by the tugboat, and the ship was towed to the harbor of New York.

At the office of Funch, Edye & Co. it is said that the only vessel that has been sighted is the Hekla. The ship was seen by the tugboat, and the ship was towed to the harbor of New York.

At the office of Funch, Edye & Co. it is said that the only vessel that has been sighted is the Hekla. The ship was seen by the tugboat, and the ship was towed to the harbor of New York.

At the office of Funch, Edye & Co. it is said that the only vessel that has been sighted is the Hekla. The ship was seen by the tugboat, and the ship was towed to the harbor of New York.

FIGHTING AT MANAC.

Carl Herold Kills Himself After a Desperate Struggle.

Shot at His Housekeeper and Threatened the Landlord.

An Order to Clean Up or Move Out Unsettled the Tenant's Mind.

Carl Herold, a crazy brushmaker, tried to murder Mrs. Lout, his housekeeper, at the tenement 12 Stanton street, this morning. He also attempted to shoot Richard Haas, who went to the woman's rescue. Failing, he sent two bullets into his own body, and was found dead in his room when the police men went to arrest him.

Herold had threatened to shoot his landlord because the latter was going to dispossess him, and waited all day yesterday to carry out his threat, but the landlord did not come to the house.

Herold moved into two little rooms on the first floor of the tenement at 12 Stanton street last December. He used the front room as a workshop and living apartment and slept in the rear. He cooked his own meals and spurned everybody. He was eccentric and peculiar, his only companion was a cat.

Casualty Herold went to see Joseph Robinson, who keeps a jewelry store in the same building. The jeweler put him down as a crank and a trouble maker, and his neighbors. He was in the habit of denouncing everybody, and openly boasted of his dislike for all religious sects.

A few weeks ago the landlord of the house, Henry Knapp, who lives in Jersey City, told the housekeeper, Mrs. Lout, to make Herold move. The brushmaker was a man of extremely filthy habits, and he kept his place dirty and his room a cesspool.

Herold refused to move out, and the landlord got a dispossessing warrant, and he was to be removed this morning.

This was what led to the shooting. The housekeeper was across the hall from the room occupied by Herold. She is a widow. Her husband died a year ago. Ever since Charles Herold, who is a student of her husband, has been boarding with her.

Herold went to the housekeeper yesterday and offered to give her $2 if she would let him and his wife move into the room. He offered her $2 if she would let him and his wife move into the room.

She refused to take his money. He then threatened to shoot her. He then threatened to shoot her.

He then threatened to shoot her. He then threatened to shoot her.

He then threatened to shoot her. He then threatened to shoot her.

He then threatened to shoot her. He then threatened to shoot her.

He then threatened to shoot her. He then threatened to shoot her.

He then threatened to shoot her. He then threatened to shoot her.

He then threatened to shoot her. He then threatened to shoot her.

He then threatened to shoot her. He then threatened to shoot her.

He then threatened to shoot her. He then threatened to shoot her.

He then threatened to shoot her. He then threatened to shoot her.

He then threatened to shoot her. He then threatened to shoot her.

He then threatened to shoot her. He then threatened to shoot her.

He then threatened to shoot her. He then threatened to shoot her.

He then threatened to shoot her. He then threatened to shoot her.

WHO IS THIS WOMAN?

Her Dead Body Found Afloat in the East River.

Her Dress and Jewels Indicate that She Was Well-to-Do.

Her Bonnet Tied On and Big Diamonds in Her Ears.

John Johnson, an employee of the Long Island Ferry Company, found the body of a woman floating in the slip at the foot of East Thirty-fourth street at 8 o'clock this morning. Johnson notified Policeman Lott, of the East Thirty-fifth street station, and the body was fished out and taken to the Morgue.

It had evidently been in the water three weeks or more and was much decomposed. Deputies Morgue-keeper Finnegan says that the woman was about fifty years old, and gives the following description of the body:

"Medium height, weighs 150 pounds, black hair streaked with gray, several teeth in both upper and lower jaw on left side missing."

The woman wore a black satin dress and a bodice of the same material, richly trimmed with jet beads. A bouquet of black velvet, ornamented with jet beads and a large purple bow, was fastened on her head by long black velvet strings.

The underclothes were of red material, and consisted of chemise and red flannel petticoat. Some of the undergarments were missing.

A close inspection of the memorandum book disclosed the name of Abraham Math mesky, a clothes peddler, of 413 Madison street, who had been in the neighborhood of the body.

Math mesky, when seen, said that the description of the body tallied with that of one of his customers, Mrs. Mac, of 155 West Fifty-second street.

He had purchased two revolvers for $3, which he had with him. He pulled one of them from his pocket and pointed it at Mr. Lott. A policeman was called in, but Herold went back into his room and was quiet.

Richard Haas was putting out the ashes at 9:30 o'clock this morning when he saw Herold in the hall. Haas locked the door of the housekeeper's room, leaving her asleep in bed in the back room.

Herold broke open the door of the housekeeper's room and rushed in with a revolver. He fired at Mrs. Knapp, who jumped out of bed when Herold burst the door open.

He then threatened to shoot her. He then threatened to shoot her.

He then threatened to shoot her. He then threatened to shoot her.

He then threatened to shoot her. He then threatened to shoot her.

He then threatened to shoot her. He then threatened to shoot her.

He then threatened to shoot her. He then threatened to shoot her.

He then threatened to shoot her. He then threatened to shoot her.

He then threatened to shoot her. He then threatened to shoot her.

He then threatened to shoot her. He then threatened to shoot her.

He then threatened to shoot her. He then threatened to shoot her.

He then threatened to shoot her. He then threatened to shoot her.

He then threatened to shoot her. He then threatened to shoot her.

He then threatened to shoot her. He then threatened to shoot her.

BUCHANAN CHEERFUL.

T. J. Alleged Poisoner Smiles When Brought Into Court.

Dr. Henry Loomis Called to Tell of the Autopsy.

Expert Medical Testimony Likely to Occupy Two Days.

The fifteenth day of the trial of Dr. Robert W. Buchanan for the alleged poisoning to death of his wife, Anna B. Buchanan, in Part III of General Sessions, was begun with a medical expert on the stand.

Dr. Loomis, the eminent pathologist, who assisted Dr. Loomis in the post-mortem examination on Mrs. Buchanan's body, will be called during the trial as a witness by whose testimony the people hope to prove that the Nova Scotian doctor's wife died from the effects of the combined poisons, morphine and atropine, alleged to have been administered by Dr. Buchanan.

It was owing to Buchanan's skill in combining these two drugs, District-Attorney Steel claims, that even such able physicians as Drs. McIntyre and Watson, from whom the defense have apparently been able to draw several points in their favor, were completely deceived, the atropine covering up the ordinary symptoms of morphine poisoning.

On the other hand, the defense will endeavor to prove that the atropine would entirely counteract the effects of the morphine, as was contended in the Carlyle Harris case by Dr. Fowler.

According to District-Attorney Steel, Dr. Loomis' testimony alone will consume two days.

Buchanan Unusually Pleasant. Dr. Buchanan was unusually bright and cheerful when he came into court at 10:25 this morning. He walked briskly back to the prison, and a usually greeted several of his friends with a smile.

It was 11:20 when Recorder Smyth entered the courtroom and the proceedings were resumed. Even the Recorder had laid aside his wonted stern expression and looked benignly on juror, counsel and reporters.

Dr. Buchanan was unusually bright and cheerful when he came into court at 10:25 this morning. He walked briskly back to the prison, and a usually greeted several of his friends with a smile.

He had graduated in 1883 from the Medical Department of the University of New York, was president of the New York Pathological Society and curator at Bellevue Hospital.

He had graduated in 1883 from the Medical Department of the University of New York, was president of the New York Pathological Society and curator at Bellevue Hospital.

He had graduated in 1883 from the Medical Department of the University of New York, was president of the New York Pathological Society and curator at Bellevue Hospital.

He had graduated in 1883 from the Medical Department of the University of New York, was president of the New York Pathological Society and curator at Bellevue Hospital.

He had graduated in 1883 from the Medical Department of the University of New York, was president of the New York Pathological Society and curator at Bellevue Hospital.

He had graduated in 1883 from the Medical Department of the University of New York, was president of the New York Pathological Society and curator at Bellevue Hospital.

He had graduated in 1883 from the Medical Department of the University of New York, was president of the New York Pathological Society and curator at Bellevue Hospital.

He had graduated in 1883 from the Medical Department of the University of New York, was president of the New York Pathological Society and curator at Bellevue Hospital.

He had graduated in 1883 from the Medical Department of the University of New York, was president of the New York Pathological Society and curator at Bellevue Hospital.

He had graduated in 1883 from the Medical Department of the University of New York, was president of the New York Pathological Society and curator at Bellevue Hospital.

He had graduated in 1883 from the Medical Department of the University of New York, was president of the New York Pathological Society and curator at Bellevue Hospital.

He had graduated in 1883 from the Medical Department of the University of New York, was president of the New York Pathological Society and curator at Bellevue Hospital.

He had graduated in 1883 from the Medical Department of the University of New York, was president of the New York Pathological Society and curator at Bellevue Hospital.

He had graduated in 1883 from the Medical Department of the University of New York, was president of the New York Pathological Society and curator at Bellevue Hospital.

AGAIN THE TIGER SMILES.

Mayor Haynes Will Stop It. Quarantined the Rector.

Won't Allow the Plimmer-McBride Fight to Go On.

Red Bank Excited by an Epidemic of Small-Pox.

He Uses Harsh Language and Threatens to Call Out the Militia.

Town in Control of State Health Authorities.

NEWARK, N. J., April 6.—The New Jersey Amusement Company is in a feverish state of uncertainty regarding the boxing exhibition which has been extensively advertised for next Monday night at Caledonia Park, when Billy Plimmer and Danny McBride are billed to spar for the lightweight championship of the world.

The license necessary for the exhibition has not yet been granted and Mayor Haynes, who is in charge of the town, has refused to issue it. He has threatened to call out the militia to prevent the fight.

Mayor Haynes, who is in charge of the town, has refused to issue it. He has threatened to call out the militia to prevent the fight.

Mayor Haynes, who is in charge of the town, has refused to issue it. He has threatened to call out the militia to prevent the fight.

Mayor Haynes, who is in charge of the town, has refused to issue it. He has threatened to call out the militia to prevent the fight.

Mayor Haynes, who is in charge of the town, has refused to issue it. He has threatened to call out the militia to prevent the fight.

Mayor Haynes, who is in charge of the town, has refused to issue it. He has threatened to call out the militia to prevent the fight.

Mayor Haynes, who is in charge of the town, has refused to issue it. He has threatened to call out the militia to prevent the fight.

Mayor Haynes, who is in charge of the town, has refused to issue it. He has threatened to call out the militia to prevent the fight.

Mayor Haynes, who is in charge of the town, has refused to issue it. He has threatened to call out the militia to prevent the fight.

Mayor Haynes, who is in charge of the town, has refused to issue it. He has threatened to call out the militia to prevent the fight.

Mayor Haynes, who is in charge of the town, has refused to issue it. He has threatened to call out the militia to prevent the fight.

Mayor Haynes, who is in charge of the town, has refused to issue it. He has threatened to call out the militia to prevent the fight.

Mayor Haynes, who is in charge of the town, has refused to issue it. He has threatened to call out the militia to prevent the fight.

Mayor Haynes, who is in charge of the town, has refused to issue it. He has threatened to call out the militia to prevent the fight.

Mayor Haynes, who is in charge of the town, has refused to issue it. He has threatened to call out the militia to prevent the fight.

Mayor Haynes, who is in charge of the town, has refused to issue it. He has threatened to call out the militia to prevent the fight.

Mayor Haynes, who is in charge of the town, has refused to issue it. He has threatened to call out the militia to prevent the fight.

Mayor Haynes, who is in charge of the town, has refused to issue it. He has threatened to call out the militia to prevent the fight.

Mayor Haynes, who is in charge of the town, has refused to issue it. He has threatened to call out the militia to prevent the fight.

MAYOR HAYNES WILL STOP IT. QUARANTINED THE RECTOR.

Won't Allow the Plimmer-McBride Fight to Go On.

Red Bank Excited by an Epidemic of Small-Pox.

He Uses Harsh Language and Threatens to Call Out the Militia.

Town in Control of State Health Authorities.

NEWARK, N. J., April 6.—The New Jersey Amusement Company is in a feverish state of uncertainty regarding the boxing exhibition which has been extensively advertised for next Monday night at Caledonia Park, when Billy Plimmer and Danny McBride are billed to spar for the lightweight championship of the world.

The license necessary for the exhibition has not yet been granted and Mayor Haynes, who is in charge of the town, has refused to issue it. He has threatened to call out the militia to prevent the fight.

Mayor Haynes, who is in charge of the town, has refused to issue it. He has threatened to call out the militia to prevent the fight.

Mayor Haynes, who is in charge of the town, has refused to issue it. He has threatened to call out the militia to prevent the fight.

Mayor Haynes, who is in charge of the town, has refused to issue it. He has threatened to call out the militia to prevent the fight.

Mayor Haynes, who is in charge of the town, has refused to issue it. He has threatened to call out the militia to prevent the fight.

Mayor Haynes, who is in charge of the town, has refused to issue it. He has threatened to call out the militia to prevent the fight.

Mayor Haynes, who is in charge of the town, has refused to issue it. He has threatened to call out the militia to prevent the fight.

Mayor Haynes, who is in charge of the town, has refused to issue it. He has threatened to call out the militia to prevent the fight.

Mayor Haynes, who is in charge of the town, has refused to issue it. He has threatened to call out the militia to prevent the fight.

Mayor Haynes, who is in charge of the town, has refused to issue it. He has threatened to call out the militia to prevent the fight.

Mayor Haynes, who is in charge of the town, has refused to issue it. He has threatened to call out the militia to prevent the fight.

Mayor Haynes, who is in charge of the town, has refused to issue it. He has threatened to call out the militia to prevent the fight.

Mayor Haynes, who is in charge of the town, has refused to issue it. He has threatened to call out the militia to prevent the fight.

Mayor Haynes, who is in charge of the town, has refused to issue it. He has threatened to call out the militia to prevent the fight.

Mayor Haynes, who is in charge of the town, has refused to issue it. He has threatened to call out the militia to prevent the fight.

Mayor Haynes, who is in charge of the town, has refused to issue it. He has threatened to call out the militia to prevent the fight.

Sunday's World

LAST EDITION.

LOCHREN IS THE MAN.

Appointed Pension Commissioner to Succeed Raum.

Taylor Nominated to Be Minister to Spain.

So To-Day's Big Official Puns Go to Minnesota and Alabama.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—The President sent the following nominations to the Senate to-day:

HANNIS TAYLOR, of Alabama, to be Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States to Spain.

WILLIAM LOCHREN, of Minnesota, to be Commissioner of the General Land Office.

CHARLES EDWARD RIGGS, of Iowa, to be an Assistant Surgeon in the Navy.

Judge Lochren's appointment as Pension Commissioner was foreshadowed in a dispatch in "The Evening World's" Sporting Extra last evening.

The appointed is fifty-seven years of age, was born in Vermont, where he was educated in the public schools and admitted to the bar.

He went to Minnesota in 1887 and practiced his profession, but when the war broke out he was the first man in the State to abandon his civil pursuits and enlist in the First Minnesota Regiment. His service during the war was severe, culminating at Gettysburg, where his regiment made the famous charge that checked Pickett's onslaught.

After the war Lochren came out in command of the regiment, every officer above his grade having been killed or wounded.

When the war was over Mr. Lochren returned to Minnesota and resumed the practice of law. He was very popular, and was twice the Democratic candidate for Congress in the First Minnesota District.

In 1882 he was appointed by a Republican Governor to succeed to the office of Commissioner of the General Land Office, and at the expiration of his appointment was twice re-elected to the same place without opposition.

He has never sought office, and his popularity is best attested by the fact that he was twice the Democratic candidate for Congress in the First Minnesota District.

At the expiration of his appointment was twice re-elected to the same place without opposition.

He has never sought office, and his popularity is best attested by the fact that he was twice the Democratic candidate for Congress in the First Minnesota District.

At the expiration of his appointment was twice re-elected to the same place without opposition.

He has never sought office, and his popularity is best attested by the fact that he was twice the Democratic candidate for Congress in the First Minnesota District.

At the expiration of his appointment was twice re-elected to the same place without opposition.

He has never sought office, and his popularity is best attested by the fact that he was twice the Democratic candidate for Congress in the First Minnesota District.

At the expiration of his appointment was twice re-elected to the same place without opposition.

He has never sought office, and his popularity is best attested by the fact that he was twice the Democratic candidate for Congress in the First Minnesota District.

At the expiration of his appointment was twice re-elected to the same place without opposition.

He has never sought office, and his popularity is best attested by the fact that he was twice the Democratic candidate for Congress in the First Minnesota District.

At the expiration of his appointment was twice re-elected to the same place without opposition.

He has never sought office, and his popularity is best attested by the fact that he was twice the Democratic candidate for Congress in the First Minnesota District.

At the expiration of his appointment was twice re-elected to the same place without opposition.

He has never sought office, and his popularity is best attested by the fact that he was twice the Democratic candidate for Congress in the First Minnesota District.

At the expiration of his appointment was twice re-elected to the same place without opposition.

He has never sought office, and his popularity is best attested by the fact that he was twice the Democratic candidate for Congress in the First Minnesota District.